Wild dog, Dingo Canis familiaris

The Dingo is Australia's wild dog. It was probably introduced to Australia by Asian seafarers about 4,000 years ago. Dingos prey on rabbits, kangaroos, wallabies and wombats.

Cooperative and Likable

Honest and loyal, Dogs are true friends. They are popular and often asked for advice and help. Inside they may be feeling anxious but once they decide on something they become very determined.
