Temporary Exhibitions

Immigration Museum

Ancient Hampi: The Hindu Kingdom Brought to Life

12 November 2008 to 31 January 2010

This innovative exhibition immersed the visitor in one of the most spectacular world heritage sites in Southern India. The project was developed by Museum Victoria, the UNSW iCinema Centre and EPIDEMIC, as well as local and international artists.

Talanoa: Stories of the Fiji Community

19 April 2009 to 16 August 2009

Talanoa (the Fijian word for story-telling) explored how and why Fiji-born people came to Victoria, and what values, beliefs and practices they brought with them. The diverse Fiji community presented a thought-provoking account of the relationships that sustain their connection with Fiji, and shaped their settlement in Australia.

A Worthwhile Enterprise: the Migrant Hostel in Springvale

6 May to 7 July 2009

This exhibition recorded the history of the hostel and the impact it made on the surrounding community of Springvale as well as on Victoria's broader multicultural landscape.

Cultural Diversity Quest Awards Exhibition

20 June 2009 to 28 August 2009

The Quest Awards encouraged Victorian students to celebrate their state's cultural diversity through creative expression. Announced during Cultural Diversity Week, the winning entries were presented at the Immigration Museum for Refugee Week 2009.

Handing on the Key: Palestinians in Australia

21 August 2009 to 22 November 2009

For the majority of Palestinians in Australia, there is no lived experience of Palestine. This exhibition explored how the link to homeland is passed from one generation to the next through acts of memory.

Talking Faiths: My story, your story, our story

26 November 2009 to 28 May 2010

This exhibition documented a project involving young people exploring interfaith issues through a multicultural perspective. Encompassing students from a range of faith-based and secular Government schools, this exhibition featured multimedia representations and photographs of the student project and artworks developed by the students as part of their conversations. This exhibition was part of the Parliament of the World's Religions 2009 cultural program.

Callaloo: the Caribbean Mix in Victoria

3 December 2009 to 6 March 2010

Like the traditional Caribbean Callaloo soup – a unique mix of spices, vegetables, meat and herbs – the Caribbean community is a wonderfully diverse mix of races and cultures. This exhibition explored the cultures and experiences within Victoria's small but vibrant Caribbean community.

Australia's Muslim Cameleers: Pioneers of the Inland 1860s – 1930s

26 February to 19 September 2010

The exhibition explored 80 years of Muslim society in Australia and traced the little-known heritage of the Muslim cameleers who first arrived in 1860 to aid expeditions into outback Australia. A rich collection of historical photographs, film, artworks, oral histories and objects such as camel saddle packs, textiles and portraits were featured in the exhibition.

Survival of a Culture: Kurds in Australia

17 March to 12 September 2010

This exhibition explored how Kurdish culture has survived through adversity, invasion, and division of the Kurds' traditional lands. The exhibition examined the traditions at the core of Kurdish culture that have enabled it to survive, and which Kurds proudly maintain in Australia today.

Scienceworks

The Mathemazing Exhibition

25 April to 6 December 2009

The exhibition gave visitors the chance to explore and discover mathematics, and learn more about its importance in application for everyday situations. The hands-on exhibition drew on a number of branches of mathematics, from arithmetic to algebra and dispelled the myth that 'maths is boring' by being lots of fun!

Star Wars: Where Science Meets Imagination

4 June to 8 November 2009

The exhibition explored the fantasy technology depicted in the Star Wars movies, the real science behind them, and the latest research that may someday lead to remarkable real-world equivalents.

Toys: Science at Play

12 December 2009 to 18 July 2010

This exhibition was originally at Scienceworks in 2004, but was so popular that it made a welcome return. It engaged children aged 5–12, together with their families and teachers. The exhibition offered an educational and interactive experience enabling visitors to explore some fundamental science principles by playing with toys.

Going Places: The Technology of Transport

12 December 2009 – 18 October 2010

This unique exhibition explored the way mankind has developed transport technology to overcome gravity, distance and division of continents to move us around the globe. As well as investigating current modes of travel, Going Places looked ahead at what transport might be available in the future.

Melbourne Museum

INNOVIC's Next Big Thing Award Exhibition

30 May to 12 July 2009

This exhibition in Melbourne Museum's lower foyer displayed winning entries from the Next Big Thing global competition and annual award to find and showcase new inventions and innovations that have the potential to become 'the next big thing'.

A Day in Pompeii

26 June to 25 October 2009

This exhibition took visitors back in time to experience life and death in the cosmopolitan city of Pompeii. The exhibition featured hundreds of exceptional objects including room-size frescoes, marble and bronze sculptures, jewellery, gold coins and everyday household items – all of which evoked the richness and culture of daily life in the Roman Empire's favourite vacation resort.

Design Now and Bombay Sapphire Design Discovery Award

14 August to 22 November 2009

These two Australian design exhibitions from Object Gallery were exhibited together in the Melbourne Gallery. Design Now exhibited work by young design graduates and Bombay Sapphire Design Discovery Award showcased the ten best Australian contemporary functional designs submitted for this annual award.

Fringe Furniture: alumni retrospective

23 September to 11 October 2009

Organised by Melbourne's Fringe Festival, Fringe Furniture 2009 presented a retrospective exhibition of thirty works dating from 1986 to the present.

2009 Design Challenge: Fire

11 November 2009 to 28 February 2010

Presented by the Design Research Institute, RMIT University, the 2009 Design Challenge: Fire presented a range of innovative trans-disciplinary design projects developed in response to Victoria's devastating February 2009 bushfires by a diverse range of researchers and experts.

Bushfire Art Healesville Primary School

27 November 2009 - 2 February 2010

This exhibition featured artworks depicting the experiences of students from Healesville Primary School during Victoria's Black Saturday bushfires of February 2009.

Christmas Cards

1 December 2009 to 6 January 2010

Christmas cards dating from the 1890s to the 1960s were displayed in a showcase in Melbourne Museum's main foyer.

Menagerie- Contemporary Indigenous Sculpture in Australia

16 December 2009 to 21 February 2010

This contemporary Indigenous sculpture exhibition featured 33 established and emerging Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists from every Australian state and territory. The exhibition was developed by Object Gallery and the Australian Museum.

Mammalodon fossil

22 December 2009 to 3 May 2010

This display complemented the groundbreaking research of Harold Mitchell Fellow Dr Erich Fitzgerald on baleen whales that was published in the Zoological Journal of the Linnean Society in London. The research centred on the Museum Victoria specimen of Mammalodon colliver, which featured in the foyer showcase display.

Sam the Koala

14 January to 3 May 2010

The injured koala made famous by images of her drinking from a firefighter's water bottle during the February 2009 bushfires was preserved for display in a showcase in Melbourne Museum's main foyer. Sam's placement in the museum preserved her story, and her extraordinary role in providing a source of hope to those devastated by the bushfires.

Top Designs 2009: VCE Season of Excellence 2009

21 March to 26 July 2010

Top Designs 2009 was the tenth annual exhibition at Museum Victoria of exemplary work by high-achieving VCE Design students. The exhibition was presented in partnership with the Victorian Curriculum and Assessment Authority and was supported by comprehensive public programs.

AGIdeas 2010: the first 20 years and NewStar exhibition

23 April to 23 May 2010

This exhibition featured finalists from the NewStar competition for young designers as well as a commemorative display celebrating the first 20 years of agIdeas, the largest design industry event in Australia.

An Archaeological Time Capsule

3 May 2010 to 22 November 2010

This foyer showcase display featured the domestic refuse of a nineteenth century household in inner-city Melbourne, as excavated from the Casselden Place site between 1987 and 2002. Arranged by functional category, the artefacts provided an insight into the archaeological process and coincided with Archaeology Week related activities.

Titanic- The Artefact Exhibition

14 May - 17 October 2010

Presented in association with Frontier Events Company, Premier Exhibitions and RMS Titanic Inc, this major exhibition featured more than 280 artefacts salvaged from the Titanic's debris field at the bottom of the North Atlantic Ocean, as well as impressive recreations of parts of the ship. Museum Victoria staff developed local interest stories by researching Australian connections to Titanic's passengers and crew, and adding a foyer display on Melbourne in 1912 and the local newspaper reports of the sinking.

Bunjilaka

Ngarjun and Nakun: Our eyes, Our footprints

9 July to 10 November 2009

This exhibition revealed the powerful collective story of the Mullett Family - Gunai/Kurnai (Gippsland). The exhibition featured textiles and objects from four generations of family members.

Lojtpa: Speaking to

19 October 2009 to 27 June 2010

Lojtpa showcased a series of photographs of the Shepparton Aboriginal community taken by local Yorta Yorta and Bangerang youth. The images were accompanied by video and audio recordings of 'yarns' or stories told to the young participants by Elders and community members.

From Little Things Big Things Grow

17 June to 7 November 2010

This exhibition highlighted the struggle for Aboriginal civil rights in the period 1920–1970. During this period, most Aboriginal Australians lived a very restrictive life and did not enjoy the same civil rights as other Australians. There was a series of three lectures to compliment the exhibition including Monica Morgan, Marcia Langton and Gary Foley.
