

PRISM STYLE GUIDE

The PRISM Style Guide is based on the Museums Victoria Style Guide. As it is not exhaustive, other style guides should be used as required:

- APA Style, 7th edition. These are helpful summaries for quick reference:
 - https://libguides.library.curtin.edu.au/ld.php?content_id=47814322
 - https://aut.ac.nz/libguides.com/ld.php?content_id=49045133
 - <https://library.unimelb.edu.au/recite/apa7>
- Australian Government Style Manual <https://www.stylemanual.gov.au/>
- Macquarie Dictionary

The following content highlights specific information for authors and editors. It reiterates content from the above sources and provides clarity where they are contradictory. (Contradictions or alternatives are even found within these sources). If confusion persists after referring to the below section, the issue can be flagged as a comment in the submitted paper for the PRISM editorial board to review.

OVERALL CONTENT OF SUBMISSION

1. Article type
2. Title, subtitle (both in sentence case) and author
3. Abstract (up to 250 words)
4. Keywords (for search engine optimisation)
5. Body text (with heading to signify where it starts. Body text contains all footnotes, cited sources and bibliographical references. The body text should be structured by section headings as needed).
6. Section headings (bold)
7. Footnotes (not endnotes) including bibliographic references in APA 7th edition style; no bibliography. DOIs should be included where possible.
8. Images, captions & copyrights ensure each image has a corresponding caption, with credit and copyright information as relevant.

9. About the author 70 words, starting with “XXX is...” include ORCID iD if applicable.

10. Contact information

First name / Surname

Institution, Role

Email

Postal address

11. Declaration of any conflicts of interest Note: This is anything that interferes with or could reasonably be perceived as interfering with the full and objective presentation or publication of articles submitted to the journal, or the peer review and editorial decision-making processes.

OVERALL FORMAT OF SUBMISSION

- Font, body text: Arial 11pt and 1.5 spacing
- Font, footnotes: Arial 9pt and 1.0 spacing. Footnotes end with full stop, however no full stop after a DOI or URL
- Margins: 3cm on all sides
- Text left justified
- No page numbers
- Between sentences: single line spacing
- Between paragraphs: double line spacing
- Short quotations (more than two words): in italics, with single inverted commas (Museums Victoria requires italics)
- Long quotations: in separate paragraphs, in italics, without inverted commas (unless within quoted text), indented 1.25
- Section headings should be bold, in sentence case; no more than three levels
- Reference numbers in text: outside punctuation – as noted by Smith.¹

- No bibliography at end; references within footnotes

FORMAT, EXPRESSION & CAPITALISATION

- PRISM should be referred to as a journal, in preference to “issue”, “work” or “title”
- Each contribution in the journal is an article
- Museums Victoria; thereafter “the museum” (lower case). Similarly, the State Library of Victoria; thereafter “the library”
- The names of divisions and departments use “and” rather than “&”
- Exhibition names in italics. Note: all words in exhibition titles to be capitalised except for conjunctions, etc (as these are names of creative works); after colon, only capitalise first word and proper nouns – e.g. Beyond Perception: Seeing the unseen
- Object numbers and names (MV): ST 046726, Steam Traction Engine – Cowley's Eureka Ironworks, Ballarat, Victoria, 1916
- For collection material, use the term “object”, “item”, “document” or “photograph”, or similar specific terms.
- Communities: use the singular and collective names used by the communities themselves, and/or traditional names. Undertake appropriate consultation with contemporary community representatives as required to confirm usage
- Title/role capitalisation: We follow MV style and do not capitalise job titles in a sentence context, excepting proper nouns.
- Qualifications: Check current usage. For instance, Bachelor of Agricultural Science is BAgSc. Use masters degree, not master or master's
- Photos and images: e.g. Bill was active in the store (fig. 1) (See also IMAGES, below)
- Twentieth century not 20th century
- Wars: World War I
- Dates:

- in-text and footnotes: 20 March 1916
- Mid-90s, not mid-nineties
- Numbers: spell out one – nine; 10 and above as numerals, except nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Commas for numbers 1,000 and higher
- Area: 2000 m² / 23 km (note space after number)

PUNCTUATION & CONTRACTIONS

Refer to Macquarie Dictionary as needed.

- No spaces around slash / except where this would be hard to read or understand
- Inverted commas: ‘single’; use “double” within quote
- Dashes: En – dashes for dates or spans, such as 1914–1918 or pp. 20–24. Use Em — dashes in-text, with spaces on each side for clarity. Use hyphens to connect words as usual
- Inter-war (with hyphen) and post-war
- Hand-written
- First-hand (not firsthand, although both are fine by the Macquarie Dictionary)
- Single space after full stops.
- Etc: use with comma before, and no stop after – thus: “French, Spanish, etc, would be considered...”
- Use the forms i.e. and e.g.
- p. 116 or pp. 116–118 for pages both in body text and footnotes
- Initials: use full stops and spacing between – e.g. R. L. Jones
- Post-nominals: don’t insert commas before or between initials – e.g. Dame Bridget Ogilvie AC DBE FRS FAA
- Hyperlinks: Ideally include date accessed as well. No full stop after hyperlink, however use a full stop preceding it. Hyperlink should be visible as linked text:

Loddon site, Victorian Heritage Register (VHR) H0276.

SPELLING

Refer to Macquarie Dictionary as needed.

- Use common British suffixes and spellings, as per the Macquarie's first instance – eg. -ise:
 - misdemeanours
 - categorise
 - organise
 - organisational
 - focused
 - memorise
 - realisation
- Programme (schedule of events) and program (computers only)

REFERENCING & FOOTNOTES

Full bibliographic references in APA Style, 7th edition to be included in footnotes. This is a departure from APA's in-text referencing style.

- In-text – refer to author (as needed) then all further info into footnotes – e.g. as Jones says¹ or as Jones argued in 2015.¹
- Book names are uppercase for first word and proper nouns: after colon, first word is capitalised, then following words in lower case (except proper nouns)
- Journal names are italicised and with title case – e.g. Journal of Geography
- Between multiple sources in footnotes use a semicolon.
- If repeating a source, used shortened form with comma after date – i.e. Orazi, D. et al (2014), p. 32.

- Personal communication: P. M. Walker (personal communication, 18 April 2015).
- Book: Finlayson, C. (2019). The smart Neanderthal: Bird catching, cave art and the cognitive revolution. Oxford University Press.
 - Include DOI or URL after publisher if referencing electronic book
 - Insert page numbers after publisher where relevant
- Chapter in book: Easton, B. (2008). Does poverty affect health? Maybe it does. In K. Dew & A. Matheson (Eds.), Understanding health inequalities in Aotearoa New Zealand (pp. 97–106). Otago University Press.
- Journal article: Lambkin, B. & Meegan, J. (2004). The fabric of memory, identity and diaspora: An Irish needlework sampler in Australia with United States and Canadian connections. Folk Life, 43(3), p. 7.

- Patents: Victorian Patent no. 3918, 16 December 1884. Victorian Government Gazette, no. 12 (1885, 9 January), p. 139.

- Government reports: when the author is also the publisher, omit the publisher's name from the reference. If there is no report or catalogue number, omit this from the reference. If needed for clarity, add a note about unpublished in brackets at end, e.g. Harley J. (2003, June). Cultural Broadband Network Summary. Arts Victoria (unpublished internal papers). Or: Hallett, M. (2003). Cultural broadband network issues. Unpublished.
- URL for online access/publications: Full stop before DOI or URL – e.g. Journal of Geography, 115(5), 198-211.
<https://doi.org/10.1080/00221341.2016.1153133>
- Include date accessed for non-journal URLs, such as exhibition web sites – e.g. <https://museums victoria.com.au/melbournmuseum/whats-on/treasures-of-the-natural-world/>, accessed 14 March 2021.
